

Ana Fornieles

Summary

I am 17 and a half years old, studying at a bilingual school called Las Chapas in Marbella. I am a responsible and kind girl, who adores spending time with children and takes the best care of them. I am very friendly, hard-working, organized and full of energy. Skilled in creating fun games and educational activities.

Experience

Utah, USA

August 2021- January 2022

I spent my last year in Utah in the US. My host family had 2 children, 5 and 8 years old and I often took care and played with them.

Several afternoons, I worked as a nanny with two little twins of 2 years old. I stayed one night with them.

I also helped in the nursery at their Church most Sundays
