To Whom It May Concern:

We first met Kerry over 10 years ago, in the summer of 1994. She was here on holiday with her family and decided to stay on. (In true Kerry style!)

Our children, Gloria and Enzo were aged 7 yrs and 2 yrs at that time, and I was looking for help during the long school holidays. So I employed Kerry as a mother's help, but I consider her now as a good friend. My family and I always look forward to seeing her when she is visiting her father and sister, who now live in Spain.

Kerry was very good with my children, especially my daughter's strong character. Kerry was firm but kind, and my daughter seemed to respect that. They became very close, and often heard Gloria refer to her as her "sister." I hope that one day, now she is older that she could visit Kerry in the UK as well.

Therefore, I have no hesitancy in recommending her for any childcare position, as I know her to be loyal and trustworthy. We are also happy to receive calls for a verbal reference, and have done so on many occasions.
