

MARA

Professional Child Developer for High-Profile Families

Profile

An international childcare specialist with 12+ years of experience supporting children in high-profile families worldwide. Fluent in multiple languages and adept at navigating diverse cultures, I create nurturing environments that promote emotional, social, and intellectual growth. Skilled in using innovative methods like art therapy, Montessori, and mindfulness, I tailor learning experiences to each child. Expert in managing household tasks, coordinating complex schedules, and ensuring smooth household operations, all with the utmost discretion and professionalism.
